EUROLTA European Certificate in Language Teaching to Adults

What is it?

EUROLTA gives you the skills and competences needed to teach a language, with confidence, to adult speakers of other languages, whether in a language school, privately or a university language centre. From the theoretical background of language learning and teaching, to explanations on the latest teaching methodology, the course also provides how to incorporate technology into the classroom and how to motivate your students, so they can maximise their speaking and achieve great results.

EUROLTA is a teacher training certificate for language teachers OF ALL LANGUAGES including your mother tongue as a foreign language.

«EUROLTA was and remains a great enrichment for me. I cannot imagine a better possibility of further training in foreign language teaching. I learned a lot and acquired a lot of new skills»

Christina Markert-Lindor, Germany

«EUROLTA has offered me the chance to teach foreign language students at different levels – something that I wouldn't have been able to do at such a young age! The training offered me an insight into all the different things it takes to be a teacher, which I've learnt a lot from. It has really developed my confidence.»

Sofia Meniai, English
